Observation.

To gain your level 5 Diploma you will be required to submit product evidence such as lesson plans and resources along with your assessments.

There is a requirement to have a log of at least 100 hours teaching practice in a real classroom by the end of this qualification. The teaching hours log must be signed by a competent person in your organisation or witness to confirm the log is a true reflection of your teaching.

There is a requirement to be observed eight times delivering teaching to adults in groups of at least 5 people. This must be observed by an expert witness qualified to level 5 or equivalent in education and training. We provide the observation paperwork for them to complete which helps to record the required evidence.

Course Feedback.

"From signing up to certification the level of service from the team at CTC was outstanding. The L5 Diploma in education and training was a significant learning journey made as smooth as I could wish to hope for by the professionalism and support that I got from Chris and his team. I was so impressed that I signed up for another course straight away"
